

Into The Fire

Into the fire, Into the flame
I throw myself, there's no one else to blame
Through this fire, through this pain
You reach out for me, calling my name
In the fire

Surrounded by fire, much can be learned
You give me shelter, so I won't get burned
With You by myside, I'm not alone
You comfort me, and call me your own

I put my trust in You, for You are divine
You bring me through, the hard, and the worst of times

Out of the fire, straight through the flame
I will follow, while You lead the way
Into Your arms, It's there I will fall
As I dance with You, through it all

In this fire, in this pain
You reach out for me, calling out my, calling my name
In the fire
